PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We have had an exciting domestic season with several national series meets leading into the Sydney and Melbourne Track Classics. The peak of the upcoming domestic competition is the Australian Athletics Championships and Commonwealth Games Selection Trials to be staged in Perth. After some wonderful performances at the World Championships in Berlin our athletes will again have to show extraordinary feats of physical and mental endurance to chase selection and then take on the many nations that compete in the 2010 Commonwealth Games in New Delhi, India.

Enclosed you'll find the records and results of a sensational year of athletics. Nineteen Australians were ranked in the top 20, seven reached the top 10. Five Australian records were broken. World Championships gold to Steve Hooker (PV) and Dani Samuels (DT) along with bronze to Mitchell Watt (LJ) and the men's 4x400m relay team highlighted the meet. Silver at the World Youth Championships to Amy Pejovic (HJ) showed the future of the sport is bright. At the World University Games Australia won four gold – Dani Samuels (DT), Madeleine Pape (800m), Tristan Thomas (400mH), the men's 4x400m relay – and a silver medal to Kaila McKnight (1500m).

We certainly enjoyed much success at the World Championships. Australia fielded a team of 47 athletes – one of our largest ever teams ever sent to a World Championships. For 27 of the team, it was their debut at the Championships. With 17 top-16 finishers, including two gold (Steve Hooker – pole vault and Dani Samuels – discus) and two bronze (4 x 400m men's relay and Mitchell Watt – long jump), it was our best result at a World Championships on record. These young athletes are the future of athletics and we look forward to their continued success as we move towards London 2012.

With a lean competition season and no benchmark international events, Australian AWD athletes have continued to dominate on the world stage. Kurt Fearnley epitomised this by winning the Paris, London, Seoul, Sydney, Chicago and New York marathons as well as taking the checkered flag at the Australia Day 10km sprint. Following the success of the Beijing Paralympics, Evan O'Hanlon has continued his reign at the top of the T38 class in the 100m and is close behind in the long jump and 200m. The Global Games held in the Czech Republic saw Lindsay Sutton take gold in the hammer throw with a world record heave and also collect bronze in the shot put.

The women were not to be outdone, with Christie Dawes competing on the wheelchair marathon circuit and posting four top-five performances and a win at the IWAS World 10km Championships. On home soil Louise Ellery was the first women's seated thrower to throw more than 6.00m, with a dominating new world record of 6.09m. Louise backed up a month later with another world record of 6.13m. Up in Darwin at the Arafura Games Kelly Cartwright broke the 200m world record and smashed the Australian mark over 100m.

It was a big year for young developing AWD athletes with Kelly's stablemate Michelle Errichiello from Victoria also breaking the 200m world record at the Arafura Games. Young up-and-coming Queenslander Rachel Dodds has recently broken the Australian record in the 100m, 200m and 400m propelling her into the top five in the world in her class. Rachel and the rest of the team will be looking for greater performances in Christchurch for the IPC Athletics Championships in January, 2011.

A special thankyou to the Australian Sports Commission for its consistent and growing support of athletics. Thanks also to the Australian Olympic Committee, the Australian Paralympic Committee and the Australian Commonwealth Games Association.

The healthy partnerships we have with Asics, 2XU, Erdi Group and One HD are also very important to us and as always, their support is appreciated.

Finally, but certainly not least of all, we thank all our dedicated supporters for your continued support of athletics in Australia.

I wish all athletes, their coaches, families and supporters all the very best for their athletics goals in the upcoming year.
